Art Unit: 2815

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claim 1, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 163.
- II. Claims 2 and 4, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 163.
- III. Claims 3 and 5, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 163.
- IV. Claims 6-8, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- V. Claims 9, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- VI. Claim 10, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- VII. Claim 11, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- VIII. Claim 12, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- IX. Claim 13, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- X. Claim 14, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.
- XI. Claim 15, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 156.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as in a thyristor where D1 is not greater than D2. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as in a thyristor without lifetime control regions. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions I and V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as in a thyristor without lifetime control regions. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions VI and VII are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention VI has separate utility such as in devices where the intersection is not outward. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions VIII and IX are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention VIII has separate utility such as in a device where E_b is not less than F_b . See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions X and XI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention X has separate utility such as in a thyristor where E_c is greater than $E_b - D_5$. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 2815

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
